

THERE I GO (I. Weiser)

Moderato

There I go, lead-ing with my heart a-gain and There I go, Tho I know too much love may curb the fire, yet There I go, act-ing not so smart a-gain, but tho it's un-wise, I can't dis-guise my led a-stray by my, de-sire. There's no golden rule to guide a fool in love. love.- I tell my heart, 'Be care-ful, or you'll find that you dream alone." I'm wise it's true, what good does it do? My heart has a mind of its own. There I go, Spill-ing all the dreams I knew, and there I go thrilling-ly in love with you. Don't know if you care, Darling, but There I go.
