

LITTLE ON THE LONELY SIDE, A (Robertson-Cavanaugh-Weldon)

I'm a lit-tle on the lone-ly a lit-tle on the lone-ly side, I keep Ev-'ry let-ter that you send me I read a doz-en times or more An-y thinking of you on-ly and wish-ing you were by my side. You won-der that I know my dear, when you're not here, there's no one to ro-mance with, So if I'm seen with some-one else It's just some-one to dance with. love you more and more. Oh, how I miss your ten-der kiss and long to hold you tight, I'm a lit-tle on the lone-ly side to- night.
