

REMEMBER ME? (H. Warren) "Mr. Dodd Takes The Air"

Do you re-member one Sep-tem-ber af-ter-noon, I stood with you and listened to a you re-call a cot-tage small up-on a hill, where every day I had to pay an-wed-ding time, And did not I go with you on your hon-ey-moon? Re-mem-ber me? No oth-er hill? And if I'm not mis-tak-en, dear, I pay them still, Remem-ber me? I can see that lit-tle an-gel on your knee, Can't you see, He kind-a sort-a looks like me, For I'm the boy whose on-ly joy is lov-ing you, Who wor-ries till he hur-ries home when day is thru And I'm the guy you give your good-night kiss-es to, Re-mem-ber me?
